Memorial Hospital Hosts 20th Annual Peace, Love and Unity Service

Chattanooga, TN – On the holiday honoring Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Memorial Health Care System will celebrate the 20th Annual Peace, Love and Unity Service. The public is invited to attend Monday, Jan. 16 at 11 a.m. in the Community Rooms at Memorial Hospital.

Dr. Clark Taylor, former Memorial chief executive and current chief executive of Hospice of Chattanooga, will be the keynote speaker. Dr. Taylor established the Peace, Love and Unity Service during his tenure at Memorial.

The annual event is well attended by the community and Memorial associates as the uplifting service imparts feelings of peace, love and unity to those in attendance. This year's program will feature special guests including various ministers and musical talent from around the community.

Dr. King brought hope and healing to America. We celebrate the timeless values he taught us through his example — courage, truth, justice, compassion, dignity, humility and service. These are values that so radiantly defined Dr. King's character and empowered his leadership. These same ideals are displayed within the values of Memorial Health Care System through Reverence, Integrity, Compassion and Excellence. We celebrate Dr. King and these values at the Peace, Love and Unity Service.

For more information about the Peace, Love and Unity service, please call Darlene Black at (423) 495-7791.
