Basic Needs Assistance

Salvation Army

423- 308- 3467

Services: The agency offers financial and emergency assistance. Among other options, they offer utility assistance, free box fans, air conditioners, prescription expense, gas bill assistance, holiday toys or meals, and other forms of aid.

Bradley / Cleveland Community Services

(423) 479-4111

offers many forms of aid and support. The agency offers numerous services and resources to the low income, elderly, working poor, underprivileged and the unemployed in Bradley County and Cleveland Tennessee. Services at this center include home delivered meals for seniors, weatherizing, rent assistance, low income home emergency assistance program, utility bill help, and commodity distribution. In addition they also provide supervision for congregate meals at senior centers. Last, but not least, they manage the Cleveland homeless emergency shelter at a nearby site, and offer emergency food.

Life Skills/Job Training

Leadership Cleveland—This community leadership training program provides participants with an overview of the many facets that make up our community. The eight-month program focuses on local government, local economy, health and social services, education, public safety, law enforcement, environment and state government through tours, presentations and discussion.

Teachers Academy—Teachers participate in a four-week, on-site project in an area business/industry during the summer. By working on a special project or shadowing throughout the company, the teacher will “experience” business while providing a service to the business/industry. The goal is to impact classroom teaching through exposure to skills necessary to perform well in the workplace. Teachers are required to create lesson plans to share in their classrooms.

Small Business Development Center (SBDC)—No-cost services provided by the SBDC include business plan preparation, one-on-one business management counseling, and financial planning and loan applications. For more information call 423-472-6247.

Housing

Cleveland Emergency Shelter

Services: assists the very low income and homeless, with a focus on housing challenges and employment. As far as financial aid goes, the emergency solutions grant may be able to assist with paying a security deposit on a new apartment or coordinate the issuance of a loan for housing or rent costs. They also partner with the Tennessee Housing Development Agency on some solutions.

Community, Civic, Non-Profit Organizations

Housing Continued

Habitat For Humanity of Cleveland

423-473-4610

Habitat for Humanity of Cleveland brings people together to build and repair homes, communities and hope. Many families in Bradley County are in need of decent and affordable housing. Sub-standard housing includes overcrowding, homelessness, unsafe living environment, structural damage and a variety of other needs. Habitat provides a long-term impact that changes a family's life forever.

Women's Services

Women's Council—This program serves as a professional networking and information source for women in the community. Its mission is to educate, empower, mentor and promote women's businesses and projects through quarterly programming. It seeks to become a highly recognized and empowered group leading to enhanced quality of life and economic growth through issues of particular interest to women.

Senior Services

Senior Center

Services: Senior Centers can be thought of as a "one stop shop", where older adults can continue to find ways to improve their lives. Often, those that seek out the assistance of a senior center will find that the interaction and education available at these centers can help to manage, and often avoid, chronic illnesses such as diabetes or chronic lung disease.

Southeast Tennessee Agency on Aging and Disability

P O Box 4757, Chattanooga, TN 37405

Services: The mission of the Southeast Tennessee Area Agency on Aging and Disability is to advocate for and to strive to help older adults and people with disabilities live with dignity and choices in their homes and communities.

Economic Development Organizations

225 Keith St SW

Cleveland TN 37320

423-472-6587

Services: The primary use of the facility is to promote Chamber functions, along with community and economic development activities. For a full listing of available space for rental by our Chamber members, please contact the Chamber office.

Community, Civic, Non-Profit Organizations

Economic Development Organizations Continued

Financial Counselors of America

901-722-5000

Services: Receive access to such programs and services as comprehensive three-year program which is designed to both consolidate and reduce credit card debts, help clients avoid bankruptcy, and talk to HUD approved housing counselors to learn about alternatives to a foreclosure.

BEST Partnerships (Business & Education Serving Together)—This program unites the efforts of the business/industry sector and local school systems to forge partnerships that involve a commitment of time, energy and expertise between a Chamber-member business and a selected public school or private Chamber-member school. Each partnership is designed to benefit both business and education through available resources.

Church Outreach Ministries

Catholic Charities of Chattanooga-agency that supports low income residents of Bradley County Tennessee. As resources allow, the agency supports their clients by offering budgeting classes and counseling to them, which is a form of self-sufficiency.

The Caring Place-The Caring Place is an ecumenical Christian, non-profit organization. Its mission is to model the love of Christ by addressing basic spiritual, physical and social needs of people in Bradley County, Tennessee.

Community Service Organizations

Allied Arts Council—The mission of the Allied Arts Council is to enhance the quality of life in Cleveland/Bradley County by strengthening communication, increasing cooperation, and providing advocacy and support of the arts and leisure organizations in the community. Teachers in Bradley County and Cleveland City Schools, along with Chamber-member private schools may apply for Arts in Education grants, which are presented each fall by the Arts in Education Committee of the Allied Arts Council.

Family Promise of Bradley County

423.650.4106

Services: Family Promise of Bradley County gives compassionate individuals the opportunity to make an impact on children and their families going through a homeless transition. These families many times are led by hard working, underpaid parents who just need a hand up. Contact us. You could be the person to help our families overcome the world.

Community, Civic, Non-Profit Organizations

Children and Youth Organizations

I AM READY Center – Cleveland

322 Broad Street NW
Cleveland, TN 37311
(423) 463-5233

Services: The I.A.M. READY Center is the Bradley County site for the Jim Casey Youth Opportunities Initiative, operated by the Partnership for Families, Children and Adults. The I.A.M. READY Center prepares youth aging out of foster care for the realities of the real world so that they may continue toward success. The Center serves young people between the ages of 14-26 who have spent at least one day in foster care after the age of 14, living in or around the Bradley County Area.

Youth Leadership Program—The Youth Leadership program is an eight-month leadership development program for rising juniors and seniors from area high schools. A selection committee of Leadership Cleveland alumni makes the final selection of students for the program. Applications for the 2017-18 class are currently being accepted.

Behavioral and Addiction Services

Focus Treatment Centers-comprehensive and affordable treatment and advocacy for adults struggling with substance use and eating disorders. Our Whole Person Treatment approach reflects each patient's value and self worth while also providing hope that holds the celebrated promise of recovery.

Journey Pure Serenity Network-Journey Pure Serenity Network includes residential and Intensive Outpatient services in East Tennessee, dedicated to providing quality, affordable and effective treatment for patients struggling with addiction and co-occurring mental health disorders. Serenity Women's Center offers highly-specialized programming for women who are pregnant or who have experienced trauma.

Museums, Attractions, Festivals, and Events

Reflection Riding Native Plant Sale

This plant sale offers more than 100 species of native perennials, grasses, shrubs, and trees – all propagated by volunteers. Various programs open to guests on Friday and Saturday include wildflower walks, hummingbird presentations, and fall floral designs. A special members-only shopping preview will be held on Thursday, September 8. The event will close with a canoe trip down Lookout Creek.

Creative Discovery Museum Chocolate Festival

Held from noon to 4 p.m., this 4th annual festival celebrates the history, lore, science, and taste of chocolate. Hands-on activities include making cocoa butter lotion and sampling different chocolates. Children can learn how cocoa beans are harvested and turned into chocolate, along with how to make mousse, truffles, and chocolate chips.

Tennessee Valley Railroad Museum

Enjoy a weekend of train rides, live musical entertainment, special exhibits, a petting zoo, and blacksmith demonstrations. Guests will have the opportunity to learn about the area's railroad history and visit the Tennessee Valley Railroad Museum.

Hamilton County Fair

This fair on Chester Frost Park's 280-acre lakefront celebrates the community's heritage and traditions through arts, crafts, food, blue-ribbon awards, live music, model train displays, and an antique car show. Kids are invited to enjoy a petting zoo and play in the special children's area.

Museums, Attractions, Festivals, and Events (continued)

3 Sisters Bluegrass Festival

Local, regional, and national bluegrass stars – including Bela Fleck & Abigail Washburn, Greensky Bluegrass, Gibson Brothers, and Trout Steak Revival – will perform rain or shine at this two-day festival. Bring a lawn chair and enjoy an evening of toe-tapping music and food and beverage vendors.

Rock City's Blowing Springs Farm

Find a way through this enchanting cornfield maze and discover family-friendly activities like hayrides, pedal carts, and a Critter Corral. Visitors can also enjoy homemade funnel cakes or choose a pumpkin to take home and decorate.

Ruby Falls Haunted Cavern

The nightmare returns to Lookout Mountain beginning September 30. Descend 26 stories into a haunted cave crawling with monsters...where no one can hear you scream. Then take a short bus ride to the upper haunt. The Ruby Falls Haunted Cavern has been named one of the top 10 haunted attractions in the nation by Rand McNally. This year features "Flesh Farm" – a world torn by infection and chaos with a brutal society that thrives on the madness.

Wine Over Water Presented by FSG Bank

This festival brings nearly 250 wines to one of the world's longest pedestrian bridges overlooking the Tennessee River. Sample wines from more than 100 worldwide wineries while enjoying music from regional musicians. Beginning this year, four local chefs will be on site to demonstrate cooking and offer sample appetizers. Proceeds benefit Cornerstones for Historic Preservation in Chattanooga.

Autumn Children's Festival

Children of all ages can enjoy carnival games, inflatables, a petting zoo, kiddie train, arts and crafts, face painting, and more! Proceeds benefit Ronald McDonald House Charities of Greater Chattanooga. FREE, with small fees for activities.

RiverRocks

This year's schedule of events will include adventurous competitions such as Swim the Suck, the Chattanooga Head Race, the StumpJump 50K Trail Race, and more. There will also be more family-friendly events such as a campout event for outdoor lovers, Fireside Music Series, various hiking events, and a finale celebration.

Rock City's Rocktoberfest

Celebrate Rock City's German heritage and see the gardens during peak fall foliage. Taste traditional German foods and specialty beer in the Beer Garden, or visit the Fall Fairy Haus to learn about German folklore. Visitors can also dance the polka, don lederhosen and pose in a photo booth, and hear stories from Ik the Troll King!

Summerville Steam Specials

Take a ride along historic train routes during this 49th annual series of Autumn Leaf Specials. The vintage trains run from Chattanooga to Summerville, Georgia on Saturdays and limited Sundays in October and early November. This 100-mile round trip is pulled by an authentic steam locomotive and features a dining car luncheon.

Southern Belle Fall Leaf Color Cruise

Journey down the Tennessee River Gorge into the “Grand Canyon of the South.” Patrons enjoy a lunch buffet while taking in the mountains’ changing colors, live musical entertainment in a climate-controlled interior main deck, free bingo with gift shop prizes, and more. Visit the top deck to hear live narration about Chattanooga’s rich historical past.

St. Francis Day and the Annual Blessing of Animals

Come to St. Francis of Assisi Episcopal Church for pony rides, a petting zoo, and free food. The day begins with a pet parade, followed by a short liturgy in the Episcopal tradition to celebrate creation. Veterinarians, pet sitters, and animal day cares are on site to answer questions. If you’re searching for a new furry friend, local rescue organizations also bring adoptable pets to meet and take home!

Bark in the Park

This annual event for dog lovers will feature a spooky pooch parade, adoption fair, vendor market, obedience and service dog exhibitions, blessing of the animals, best trick contest, and best costume contest.

Cleveland Apple Festival

Visit downtown Cleveland for a fall-themed jamboree including an arts and crafts show, live music, food vendors, pony and hay rides, children’s activities, and a homemade apple dessert contest. All net proceeds are donated to nonprofit organizations in the Cleveland area.

Crabtree Farms Pumpkin Smash: Fall Harvest Festival

This fall harvest celebration offers fun for the whole family! Teams of area engineers will design catapults and compete to see who can launch pumpkins the farthest. Guests are invited to bring their own pumpkins to smash, and local refreshments will be available for purchase. Proceeds benefit educational programming at Crabtree Farms.

Fall River Cruise: Civil War on the River

Step aboard the River Gorge Explorer for a special cruise as noted historian Jim Ogden points out features along the Tennessee River that played an important role during the Civil War. Learn how these critical battlegrounds helped shape history.

AquaScarium IX

Come in costume and bring your candy bag for a night of family-friendly tricks and treats! See some of your favorite superheroes and storybook characters swim by as they scuba dive with hundreds of fish. Dance to the Monster Mash with aquarium mascots, make new friends at the Mermaid Lagoon, and enjoy treats from candy stations throughout both buildings.

Thanksgiving on the River

Let the Southern Belle take care of cooking your Thanksgiving feast this year. The historic riverboat offers live music, pilot house tours, and a traditional Thanksgiving lunch during this 2-hour afternoon cruise.
